Committees and Civil Affairs branch chiefs of the district government are to attend.

7. On 12 October, the troop strength of the 2 Truck Transport Regiment at Foochow was 1,319, including 280 drivers and 134 mechanics. One company of this regiment has been detailed to repair Foochow Airfield; the men are allowed only 4 hours of sleep daily and many of the drivers are sick. The trucks are now using camphor wood oil (sic) because of a gasoline shortage.
8. On 12 October, the 2 Truck Transport Regiment had five companies at Foochow, equipped with 174 servicable trucks and 154 drivers. One company was at Chienou (118-19, 27-04) and was equipped with 99 servicable trucks.
9. On 11 October, the 3 Battalion (sic), at Hsiap'u (119-39, 26-53), was alerted and ordered to hurry defense construction. This action was taken as a result of the occupation of Shuangfeng (120- , 26-) and Chihchu (120- , 26-) islands by guerrillas.
10. On 12 October, the Nanking Transportation Depot hired 30 commercial trucks to haul guns of the 25 Army Mountain Gun Battalion to Shangjiao. The trucks were scheduled to start for Shangjiao on 13 October.

* [] Comment. According to another agency, as of 21 October it appeared most certain that the 28 Army was in Kwangtung. However, [] reports that it was in Foochow in October.

 [] Comment. The 83 Division, usually erroneously reported under the 27 Army, has been reported for some time in Kwangtung; see [] According to another agency, as of 21 October its troops were garrisoning the Wanshan Islands.
